Our execution of this Booking Contract acknowledges that we are accepting—but not yet confirming—your booking. There is no contract between TRAVELER and Ocean Doctor without receipt of this signed contract. Where minimums have not been met and another customer is interested in your dates, you will be given 48 hours from written notice to meet the minimums as listed in this contract to confirm your option. We reserve the right to alter prices quoted should inflation, costs of fuel, labor or materials, airfares or foreign exchange rates change. Should governmental entities raise

Liability Releases

All TRAVELERs must complete the Ocean Doctor Release and Waiver of Liability, Assumption of Risk, and Indemnification Agreement online at: <https://oceandocor.org/ceep-liability-agreement>

Required Items Prior to Booking Hotels and Flights

Hotels and flights will not be booked for TRAVELER until (1) payments for all TRAVELERs in the group are made in full and (2) the required information is submitted to Ocean Doctor and Marazul. (See <https://oceandocor.org/cuba-travel-registration-checklist/>)

Each TRAVELER is required to complete these steps. If these steps are not complied with in a timely manner, we reserve the right to treat the booking as cancelled and subject to the cancellation terms in this Booking Contract.

Insurance

Purchase of airline tickets through Marazul includes Cuban Health Insurance. The tour price does not include any other type of insurance, including dive insurance, trip interruption insurance, etc.

Flight Reservations

Flight reservations will be made on behalf of TRAVELER and the Group by Marazul Charters. Reservations will only be confirmed once all payments and required documents have been received. Any delays in payments or the submission of information will lead to delays in receiving confirmations, especially for flights, and could jeopardize the Group tour.

Document Delivery

Final air travel and visa documents will be sent to TRAVELER directly by Marazul in a manner arranged directly between TRAVELER and Marazul. The Ocean Doctor trip leader may provide additional documents, such as itineraries, at the airport or other meeting point.

Transportation and Hotel Reservations

Transportation and hotel/casa reservations will be made on behalf of TRAVELER and the Group by the Suppliers/TSPs. There is high demand for hotel rooms in Cuba and the hotels require a name for each room. In order to ensure rooms for your group, room reservations are made by the Suppliers/TSPs and secured by an initial deposit upon registration of each TRAVELER in the Group. Transportation between hotels and the Havana airport and for all scheduled outings is reserved by the Suppliers/TSPs and included in the tour price.

Cancellation, Changes and Refunds

Cancellations by Ocean Doctor. Should the minimum number of TRAVELERs (as determined by Ocean Doctor) not be reached for a trip and we cancel the trip, TRAVELERs who have made payments will receive full refunds within 30 days of the trip cancellation.

Cancellations by TRAVELER. If you wish to cancel your booking, you must submit your request to Ocean Doctor in writing by email at info@oceandocor.org or by fax at (202) 888-3329. Cancellation fees are based on the date your written notification is received by Ocean Doctor.

Airlines, charter companies, hotels and other suppliers impose deposit and cancellation rules requiring us to make non-refundable payments in advance. If you must cancel prior to departure, your deposit will be returned less the applicable cancellation fee plus any additional non-refundable payments made on your behalf.

TRIP 1: Jun 1-11, 2019: Isle of Youth, Bay of Pigs, Trinidad, Havana

If a cancellation is made for any reason:

- 31 - 45 days prior to departure, 40% of the travel fee is forfeited.
- 30 days or less prior to departure, 100% of the travel fee is forfeited.

TRIP 2: Nov 9-19, 2019: Isle of Youth, Bay of Pigs, Trinidad, Havana

If a cancellation is made for any reason:

- 121-180 days prior to departure, 20% of the travel fee is forfeited.
- 61-120 days prior to departure, 40% of the travel fee is forfeited.
- 60 days or less prior to departure, 100% of the travel fee is forfeited.

Please note: Ocean Doctor collects payments, options and confirms bookings, and then pays service fees to its third party travel suppliers. As a result, in the event a refund is due to you, it may take up to 30 days to process. Also, the term "departure" as used in this contract is defined as the date of the first flight, or the trip departure date as indicated on your confirmed itinerary, whichever comes first.

Cancellation may result in additional penalties charged by local hotels, operators and airlines. Penalties on airline tickets are subject to the individual air carrier's rules and regulations.

If the booking is cancelled by the Group Organizer, our standard cancellation policy will apply.

Leaving a tour in progress, for any reason, or removal from a tour pursuant to this contract will not result in a refund, and no refunds will be made for any unused portions of a tour, including those that are the result of a TRAVELER's removal from a tour and for reasons related to weather, terrorism, civil strife, personal, family or medical emergencies or any other circumstances beyond our control. Trip cancellation and interruption insurance, which you may purchase from third-party vendors separately, may cover such costs.

Changes. If the TRAVELER and/or Group Organizer wishes to make a change to the Group's itinerary after we have confirmed the tour, you must submit a written request to us by email, facsimile or postal mail at the addresses listed above. We have sole discretion whether to accept any changes to the Group's itinerary. Any modification of dates or alteration of itineraries by the Group may incur a change fee. The fee will vary according to the type and scope of the change. Our Suppliers may impose additional fees or penalties for changes and cancellations. The itinerary would depend from local availability and weather conditions.

Cancellation of Tours and Flexibility

Ocean Doctor, Viajes Kronos Cuba, Marazul Charters, and other third party suppliers who provide components of the tour reserve the right to cancel, alter or modify the tour itinerary without prior notice if air schedule or surface transportation changes or security matters or other events beyond their control (e.g., mechanical breakdown, flight cancellations, illness, strikes, political disputes, weather, border crossing problems) make such changes necessary for the safety, comfort and/or convenience of participants. If, prior to departure, Ocean Doctor or its Suppliers/TSPs have to make any significant changes because of a problem with a supplier, for example a hotel bankruptcy, Ocean Doctor will, as soon as reasonably possible, notify you of available alternatives. Such changes may require a supplemental payment from the TRAVELERS or possibly a refund less any non-refundable deposits and third party cancellation fees. If there is a cancellation, which is rare, Ocean Doctor will refund to TRAVELERS all payments made less any applicable nonrefundable deposits and third party cancellation fees or, at our sole discretion, give the Group the option of participating in an alternative tour. If the alternative tour chosen by the Group is of lesser or greater value than the tour originally booked then the TRAVELERS will be entitled to a refund of the price difference or be required to pay the price difference, whichever the case may be. Ocean Doctor will not reimburse TRAVELERS for any personal expenses such as airline tickets, hotel or other travel expenses due to changes in itineraries or tour cancellations.

Medical Fitness

It is each TRAVELER's responsibility to ensure that he or she is healthy and fit enough to participate in the tour. Good physical and mental health is essential for the enjoyment of this active, adventure tour. By forwarding the deposit and this signed contract, the TRAVELERs certify that they do not have any physical or other conditions that would create a hazard for themselves or other travelers or affect other people's enjoyment of the tour. Ocean Doctor is not liable for medical care and related transportation provided to TRAVELERs during the tour or special dietary requirements. Once a booking has been confirmed, medical circumstances will not be considered as exceptions to our cancellation policy.

Travel Documents and Vaccinations

U.S. citizens traveling outside the United States are required to carry documentation of U.S. citizenship, such as a passport, valid for six months after reentry to the U.S. Ocean Doctor must be provided with each traveler's current and valid passport information in order to provide participants with Visas. If a participant is not a U.S. citizen, the participant should contact his/her embassy, consulate or airline for entry requirements. It is the participant's responsibility to obtain valid and effective documentation, including passports, visas other than the standard tourist visa included in the travel fee, permits, and vaccination certificates, where necessary. The participant also assumes complete and full responsibility for checking and verifying any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements of each destination and all safety or security conditions at such destinations. The participant is solely responsible for any adverse consequences, including any extra charges, resulting from missing or defective documentation. Ocean Doctor may provide information or advice on visas, vaccinations, climate, clothing, baggage, special equipment, and other items in good faith as a courtesy to the participant. Ocean Doctor is not responsible for any errors or omissions as to the information provided.

For information concerning possible dangers at an international destination, contact the government office in the participant's country that is responsible for issuing travel advisories. In the U.S., contact the Travel Advisory Section of the U.S. State Department, 1-888-407-4747, <http://www.travel.state.gov/>. U.S. citizens may register for the U.S. government's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program, a free service, at <https://step.state.gov/step/>.

Baggage

TRAVELERs are responsible for the safety and protection of their baggage and personal effects throughout the tour. All costs incurred for lost, damaged or delayed baggage will be at their own expense.

Participant's Responsibilities During Tour

Tour Start Date: It is each TRAVELER's responsibility to be at the designated point of departure from the United States, in this case, Miami International Airport, at the specified location for the scheduled departure on the flight arranged by Marazul. Ocean Doctor and its Suppliers/TSPs are not responsible for any losses due to cancelled or missed flights, changed flight itineraries, late arrivals, or early departures.

Compliance with Local Laws and Tour Etiquette: TRAVELERs' additional responsibilities include, but are not limited to, strictly complying with all local laws, respecting customs and culture, adequately assessing their abilities, respecting other participants' privacy, and following the suggestions and advice of their guide. Ocean Doctor's or its Suppliers'/TSPs' decision is final on all matters that may threaten the safety or interfere with the well-being of the group or individual travelers. Ocean Doctor and its Suppliers/TSPs each have the right to remove anyone who they a) judge to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the tour activities; or b) determine to detract from others' enjoyment of the tour.

Claims and Complaints

If a TRAVELER finds a problem or something that does not meet expectations, the TRAVELER must promptly notify Ocean Doctor or its Suppliers/TSPs so that the problem can be rectified, if possible. Failure to do so while the TRAVELER is on the tour will result in any ability to claim compensation from Ocean Doctor being extinguished or at least reduced. Further, if a TRAVELER make any changes on his or her own without following the notice procedure described above, the TRAVELER assume responsibility for any added costs he or she may incur and forfeit any potential refunds. If satisfaction is not reached through this notice procedure during the trip, the TRAVELER must submit further complaint in writing to Ocean Doctor within 30 days of the end of the tour.

Force Majeure

Neither Ocean Doctor nor its Suppliers/TSPs will be deemed in breach of this agreement or otherwise liable the Group Organizer, including the Group or TRAVELERs, by reason of delay in performance or nonperformance of any of their respective obligations under this agreement to the extent that any such delay or nonperformance is due to any Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of Ocean Doctor and its Suppliers/TSPs, including without limitation acts of God, terrorist activities, insurrection, explosion, flood, tempest, forceful wind, fire or accident, war or threat of war declared or undeclared, sabotage, civil disturbance, labor strikes, requisition, sickness, quarantine, government intervention, weather conditions, and unforeseen circumstances.

If Ocean Doctor, Viajes Kronos Cuba, Marazul or any of other supplier that provides components of the Group's tour is affected by Force Majeure, Ocean Doctor and its Suppliers/TSPs shall be entitled to, and may in their sole and absolute discretion, vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the expedition. Ocean Doctor's Suppliers/TSPs must normally make substantial and non-refundable payments to third party suppliers far in advance of the scheduled departure date. As such, payment of any refund by Ocean Doctor to a TRAVELER as a result of the nonperformance of any obligations will be less any applicable non-refundable deposits and third party cancellation fees. Further, Ocean Doctor shall be entitled to deduct from any refund recoverable the reasonable actual and potential costs to Ocean Doctor as a result of the Force Majeure.

Limitation of Remedies

Ocean Doctor and its Suppliers/TSPs are not responsible for any damages, expenses, losses or claims which are attributable the fault of any participant, unforeseen or unavoidable events, the acts of third parties, Force Majeure events, or natural disasters.

TRAVELER agrees that to the extent consistent with applicable law, the maximum amount of recovery to which they may be permitted to recover from Ocean Doctor or its Suppliers/TSPs, jointly and/or severally, shall not exceed the cost of the tour. To the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, Ocean Doctor and its Suppliers/TSPs, jointly and/or severally, shall not be liable for any remote or punitive damages arising out of or relating to the Group tour, even if Ocean Doctor and its Suppliers/TSPs have been advised of the possibility of such damages. TRAVELER expressly waives any right they may have to recover such damages. If TRAVELER, or any of their heirs or successors, or anyone acting on their behalf should bring such suit, TRAVELER shall pay all attorney fees, related court fees and defense costs should he/she not prevail.

Images and Video Release

Participant agrees that Ocean Doctor and its Suppliers/TSPs may copyright, use, re-use, and reproduce any images, photos, videos, slides, films or other media taken of a participant with others or individually, in any medium, free of charge and without the participant's right to inspection, for promotion or publicity purposes worldwide relating to Ocean Doctor's and its Suppliers'/TSPs' activities and services. If participant does not want us to use any images of participant that are taken during the tour, participant must inform us before the tour departs.
